

Yoimoji of the Week

Jambop the Brave Raccoon

Jambop is brave.

I like to try new things. Even if it feels scary or different, I always have a go and do my best.

Callum has been brave and tried toast this week.

Hazel has been brave when using the swing. She had to stay put to encourage another student to wait their turn even though she was a bit apprehensive.

Well done Sammy for being brave and playing with sand foam, tolerating touching new and different materials.

David in Elms was really brave and joined in a music lesson by singing Rocketman with his friends. Well done David.

Summer has been very brave this week, trying new foods at snack and lunchtime.

Well done Riley for being brave and getting into the hydro pool where you then had a lovely time!

Well done Dominic in Willows for being really brave and swimming independently with buoyancy aids for the first time.

Abby has been making a bird feeder, being safe and brave while using tools.

April has been really brave walking into school this week. Well done April!

April has been very brave in the swimming pool this week! She was very confident and was swimming down underwater to retrieve hoops and other toys that sink. Well done April!
