

Yoimoji of the Week

Leopold the Grateful Lion

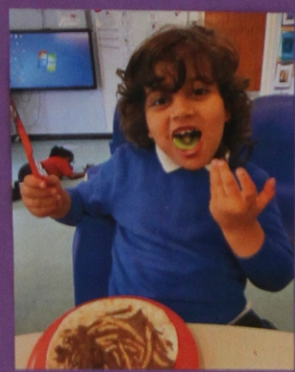

James said 'thank you' to Mary-Ellen for playing with him on the seesaw.

Emmie Rose demonstrated a grateful attitude towards the planet. She decided to collect all of the litter on the School playground independently.

Ahmad was grateful when he got to try kiwi fruit this week. He loves it!

Jason is brilliant at saying thank you and has made some lovely thank you cards to give to people.

Joe always remembers to say thank you without being asked. Well done Joe!

Summer, Kelsey and Leo V worked this week to think about people in school whom they were grateful for. They were able to name people in school that they wanted thank, and then made thank you cards to show their gratitude.

Henry has been appreciative and grateful for Oaks' activities week.

Christian has been very grateful for his new chair bowl and spoon as they have helped him to be more independent

Samson always shows that he is grateful by saying please and thank you!

Harry is always kind and grateful towards his lovely friends for helping him with his lunches and playing with him everyday.

Archie was grateful for the sun on Monday as he could play in the ice cream van outside.
