

Yoimoji of the Week

Jambop the Brave Raccoon

Sammy was brave by exploring a doughnut using his touch and smell.

Zack has been very brave this week, preparing and tasting jacket potato in our cooking session!

Hazel has been brave by being more independent doing tasks on her own

Daniel was really brave at the Christmas Fayre. He joined in with his peers and helped on a stall. Well done Daniel!

Ethan has been brave by trying different foods at school this term.

Leo was brave trying pear and he discovered he liked it!

Zach was brave on our trip to Chesworth Farm because he worked out how to get himself down all by himself when climbing.

Lex was brave playing wheelchair basketball.

Seena has been brave and shown increased resilience.

Jambop is brave.
 I like to try new things. Even if it feels scary or different, I always have a go and do my best.
