

Yoimoji of the Week

Duggz the Confident Dog

Omer has been confidently answering questions in science.

Firs Class

Shanice has been confident when exploring sensory materials.

Hazel for being confident in reading her script out in drama!

Jason for being confident answering time questions in Maths.

Sophie for being more confident in all areas of learning, particularly reading and writing.

Aditi was very confident using her standing frame for the first time since surgery.

Alfie for being confident to sleep alone in his room.

Julia has been confidently using the toilet.

Kaiden for showing confidence in his ICT skills and for acting his part as the baddy oil slick in drama!

Imogen,
You have been so confident when working in your Acheeva bed. Well done!

In Elms class we are so impressed with how Callum's confidence has grown so far this year! He is speaking loudly and clearly in class and playing with lots of new friends in the playground!

Theo is getting more confident on the trampoline and had a lovely rebound session on Thursday.

Brandon B for reading with confidence to Callum and William with Hannah.

Yoimoji

Zach was very confident exploring the messy play activities and saying how it felt!

30/01/2020 15:32