

Yoimoji of the Week

Dufflepaw the Reflective Koala

Seth has been reflective this week in our 'Predictable Chart Writing'. With support, he has been reflecting on his group writing from the beginning of the week.

Dufflepaw is reflective.

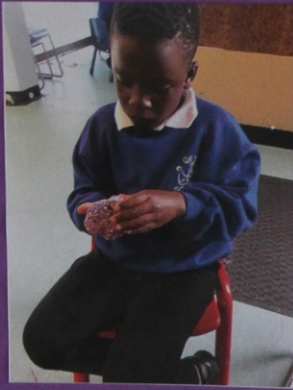

I think about things that have happened. When I look back calmly, I can understand and share what I learn.

Noah has been reflective this week, he has been enjoying our calming sessions before transition.

Seena reflected on her learning in Science to write a fact page

Brandon B- was very reflective and managed to regulate his emotions when he was very excited about doing first aid.

Isaac reflected on the recovery position he has been learning in First Aid.

Amber has been very reflective this week. She has been thinking about how to improve her work, as well as how her actions might make other people feel. Well done Amber!

Theo enjoyed reflecting on his time at Forest School and telling everyone about the worm he found.

Ella coped well with changes this week, reflecting on these changes and understanding why they needed to happen.

Amy MT has been very reflective about herself this week.

Ellis was reflective this week when he said that he had a good day and really enjoyed swimming.
