

Yoimoji of the Week

Jambop the Brave Raccoon

Harrison had been incredibly brave joining in for his first week at QES.

Millie has been really brave this week, presenting in front of the class loudly and confidently. Also, overcoming her fear and getting into the swimming pool and swimming across to the deep end.

Millie being brave at riding. She was unsure about leading the horse but then she pushed the saddle over the horse's head.

Anna was brave this week when she scratched her cheek.

Max was brave for touching paint and painting independently.

Zak was brave in his first swimming session as he swam with no adult support and had lots of fun!

Lex was very brave during his first hydro session, well done!

Robert showed bravery in his first narrative therapy session.

Jambop is brave.
I like to try new things. Even if it feels scary or different, I always have a go and do my best.

Kelsey was brave for eating cucumber!

Sarah, Sophie, Taylor, Isaac, Callum, Damon, Daniel and Kaiden have all been brave this month. We have been really impressed with how they have approached joining the college. Well done for your bravery!
