

This Week

Shakespeare "Merry Wives of Windsor": Congratulations to the cast, crew and team behind our lovely Shakespeare Schools Festival production which was very well received at The Capitol on Tuesday evening. Thank you also to the many parents and former students who came along to support us from the audience, it was lovely to see so many friendly faces. See below for some production photos and you can see more on our Facebook page.

Parent Support Group: Our next parent support group is on Thursday 14th December and is a presentation from Sarah Taylor on Intensive Interaction. If you are joining us, please let us know in advance so we can get enough food as we cannot order lunches on the day.

Snowman Cake: Jo from the kitchen has made an amazing snowman Christmas cake for us to raffle off in aid of the school. Tickets are £1 per strip and can be purchased via the Office or by sending your money in via your child's home/school book. (Please note the cake has marzipan under the icing and therefore contains almond oil.)

Merry Wives of Windsor

Our third Shakespeare production for the term was a huge success at The Capitol theatre on the evening of Tuesday 21st November. Thank you to everyone involved and to everyone who came to support us. You can see a lovely set of performance photos on our Facebook page.

Class News from Pines Class

In Pines class we had a fantastic Children in Need day and created our very own Numicon printed Pudsey Bear! On our outing this week we visited Old Barn nurseries and checked out their bubbly jacuzzis as well as their fantastic Christmas displays.

Coffee Mornings/Afternoons

Coffee mornings/afternoons replace Parents' Evenings and give you the opportunity to meet individually with your child's teacher. If you are unable to attend please contact your teacher directly to arrange a time to suit you.
