Yoimoji of the Week: Roly

Roly is an empathetic raccoon. We are using "Yoimojis" in our Assemblies, to help with learning and celebrating OFSTED's Fundamental British Values.

Yoimoji is a blend of the Japanese words "yoi" (good) and "emoji" (slang for character.) You can see our Yoimoji posters on our website's news pages.

Roly is empathetic.

I try to understand how others feel. If someone is upset or angry, I can imagine what they are going through.

Class News from Pioneers Class

Pioneers have been focusing on our new seniors topic this week- Playlists. We have experimented with a range of different instruments and noise metres, and then in art had the opportunity to explore some vinyl records.

We then made our own vinyl record covers, we then danced around the room, listening to our piece of music we had created a cover for. In this lesson we also got the opportunity to use a record player and talk about how this is different to ways we listen to music now.
