This Week

Welcome Back: We hope you had a lovely Easter break. It's been lovely to see everyone coming back after the holiday. This term runs until Tuesday 23rd July with half term from 27th-31st May.

Primary Open Morning Date Change: We have had to change the date for the Primary Open Morning. This will now be on Tuesday 21st May from 11am-12pm, not 16th May as previously stated.

Quiz Night: We are holding a quiz night in the Studio on the evening of Friday 10th May to raise money for new playground equipment. Tickets are still available via the school Office, and we'd also love any additional raffle prize donations please.

Happy Retirement Peter: We would like to wish a very happy retirement to our lovely Premises Manager, Peter Tyler, who is retiring after almost 24 years at QEII.

Student Council Awards

Kaiden, Limes -

Static electricity butterfly experiment.

Class News from Palms Class

We were really busy at the end of last term. We had fun learning about the story Funnybones, we really liked making skeletons and eating skeleton biscuits. We also had fun role playing Max from the story Where the Wild Things Are.

Class News from Limes Class

Limes class have really enjoyed learning about maps. They have followed maps around the local area. They have also found map symbols and identified places on the maps. Limes have enjoyed working with Katie our student. They have played map symbol games!
