

Yoimoji of the Week

Jambop is brave.

I like to try new things. Even if it feels scary or different, I always have a go and do my best.

Summer was brave when she was feeling a bit nervous about setting the dining hall up without any adult help.

Jasmine has been brave in trying new experiences. Well done Jasmine.

Aubrey was brave and tried some school dinner for the first time!

Abdullah has been brave using his walker round the classroom independently.

Micah was Brave when exploring the trampoline in the rebound room.

Hermione was so brave this week. It was her first few days and she was smiling and singing.

Jason was brave and spoke clearly and confidently when presenting to the class in Asdan.

Robert has been brave this week- trying lots of new activities and working with new adults.

Hei Hei was brave when getting on to the trampoline!

Ella was brave this week joining in with all her lessons and trying out new things.

Oska has been brave by talking to new peers on the playground.
