

Yoimoji of the Week

Roly the Empathetic Raccoon

Hazel always asks how people are and makes sure that they are ok.

Chloe was so lovely helping Bea to understand coordinates and showed lots of empathy to understand Bea's needs and feelings.

Katie has been very empathetic this week, comforting friends when they were upset and given other people space when they asked for it. Well done Katie!

Leo is a classmate who has shown empathy in school this week when one of his friends was upset. He stayed with them to offer comfort.

Bella has been empathetic this week. She notices when people in the class may be sad and will make sure that they are ok.

Seena was empathetic to Dominykas when he was feeling sad.

Jayden was kind and empathetic towards his friend during a tac pac session.

Lottie was empathetic when Henry was upset and moved her chair to sit next to him and helped him to feel better.

Ben has been really empathetic this week when discussing how Anne Frank might have been feeling when she was hiding during WW2
