

Yoimoji of the Week

Bucko the Resilient Rabbit

Brandon has been very resilient this week, waiting patiently for activities and trying new things!

Samson has been resilient with his writing, learning how to use 'and' in a sentence.

Leo R has shown resilience this week overcoming frustration having to wait for his turn

James showed resilience when walking on the stones as he continued to try to walk across them when they were slippery.

Robert has been resilient this week- he was very resilient when creating his model of The Shard.

Imogen has been resilient this week. She has adapted amazingly to being back in her chair, and despite being nervous about going over the grass to the playground, she has gone back every day and tried again.

Earl has been amazing learning to keep his glasses on this week despite not liking them.

Callum has been resilient when dealing with changes with transport.

Bucko is resilient.
 I never give up.
 When something is hard or I make a mistake, I keep going and try again.
