This Week

Message from Helen: I am sure that most of you will have seen the government announcement stating 8th March as the earliest date for schools re-opening. Our current opening arrangements mean that pupils can have two days in school a week, if requested. This is enabling everyone to have some consistency in class as well as accessing the home learning on the other days. We will therefore be continuing with this arrangement until we have confirmation of when we will be able to reopen fully. Thank you for your continuing support.

Head2Head Theatre: Please see the attached flyer from Head2Head Theatre with details of their latest online sensory drama production "Blackbeard's Revenge."

@Home Art Competition: Thank you to local estate agent @Home, who have generously donated £150 to the school this week. They are also running an art competition for which the deadline is this coming Monday 1st February. If your children would like to take part you can find out more on their Facebook page here:

Clothes Recycling Suspended: Our clothes recycling programme is currently suspended. The bin in our car park is sealed and has a sign on it saying it is out of use. During this time please do not leave bags of donations next to or on top of the bin as they will go to waste.

Headteacher's Award Winners

Miley, Willows - Great standing to do activities.

Yoimoji of the Week: Jazzle

Jazzle is Creative. "I'm full of new ideas. It's great fun coming up with different ways to do things and express myself."

We are using "Yoimojis" in our Assemblies, to help with learning and celebrating OFSTED's Fundamental British Values.

Yoimoji is a blend of the Japanese words "yoi" (good) and "emoji" (slang for character.) You can see our Yoimoji posters on our website's news pages.

Letters Home

Willows: One letter for parents.
