

Yoimoji of the Week

Safiya has been creative this week- making potions using different colours and resources.

Miles has been creative by mixing paint and making new colours.

Zack worked very creatively using chalk to make a stunning Northern Lights scene in Art.

Gabriel has been creative this week helping create a dinosaur poem in class.

Sam has been creative this week in writing his Ancient Egyptian story.

Teddy P has had a very creative week. He painted his dinosaur with a car! And used some highlighters to write numbers.

Robin has been Creative this week when making dinosaurs from coloured shapes in art.

Bridget was creative using paint and a rolling pin to make patterns.

Bobby has been creative this week, writing an amazing story from his imagination about travelling back in time.

Imogen has been very creative this week. Her pasta salad was colourful and very healthy!

Abijith has been creative when choosing which ingredients to cut up to make his dinosaur pizza!

Jazzle the Creative Zebra