

Yoimoji of the Week

Neon the Resourceful Wolf

David has been resourceful this week in drama, finding another person to work with, as his partner was absent. They produced some fantastic work together!

Well done Anthony for making a role play hotel room.

James was resourceful in art.

Oscar was resourceful when making his diagram of a plant.

Clayton was resourceful finding his own toy.

Zach was resourceful using the emotions ALB to talk about how we feel in our Zippy's Friends session.

Fleur was resourceful when planning for and setting up a lunch time club.

Oliver has been resourceful, using beautiful crayons as a substitute material to create his organs drawing in art when he couldn't get the right pens and pencils colours he needed. Oliver often uses materials for different jobs and is very good at finding things to help him work.

Theo was resourceful when planting flowers in the garden independently.

Bill has been resourceful when solving a problem.
