

Yoimoji of the Week

Waffles the Motivated Fox

Niki has been super motivated this week to complete his work. He has been working hard to plan and then write lots of beautiful writing, especially in English. He has written writing and taken pride in it independently at the end of the lesson to make sure he has written, checked and proudly read his work. Well done Super star!

Zach has been motivated with his learning this week using his working towards board.

Harrison has been very motivated, completing all of his work and taking pride in the things he has done.

Taylor has been motivated to join in lessons well.

Archie has motivated Miley to go in his walker

Amelia has been motivated in everything this week! Particularly independence and signing

Layton showed motivation to press and hold the switch to move the AKKA platform this week.

Thurston has been swimming independently for the first time.

Alex was very motivated to get into the swimming pool this week for the first time!

Joshua has been very motivated to seek out activities and objects in class that he wants to engage with.
