This Week

INSET Day: We have an INSET day coming up on Friday 28th January.

Number Day: We will be taking part in the NSPCC's "Number Day" again this year, on Friday 4th February. Everyone is invited to wear "money" themed outfits in return for a suggested £2 donation to the charity. Full details have been sent out to parents/carers this week by email.

QEII Connections: The topics for the upcoming QEII Connections meetings have changed. They are now as follows; Tuesday 25th January - Communication, Tuesday 8th March - Positive Parenting & Tuesday 5th April - Sensory Play.

Yoimoji of the Week: Roly

Roly is an Empathetic Raccoon. We are using "Yoimojis" in our Assemblies, to help with learning and celebrating OFSTED's Fundamental British Values.

Yoimoji is a blend of the Japanese words "yoi" (good) and "emoji" (slang for character.) You can see our Yoimoji posters on our website's news pages.

Class News from Sailors

This week Sailors have enjoyed continuing our learning based on our topic 'Are Carrots Orange?' by exploring vegetables we could use as pizza toppings. We tried and tasted vegetables such as sweetcorn, mushrooms and peppers and chose the ones we wanted to add to our pizzas! We also celebrated World Religion day and enjoyed exploring a range of different religious artefacts focusing on Buddhism and Islam. We listened to religious music, had a go at meditating and tried some traditional foods.
