

Yoimoji of the Week

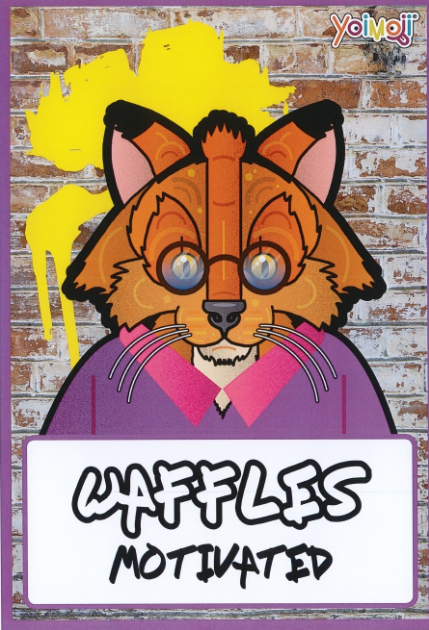

Callum was motivated to work independently this week in our history lesson about fire-fighters then and now!

Zak has been very motivated this week in his communication to ask for what he would like.

Skye has been motivated this week with her new walker.

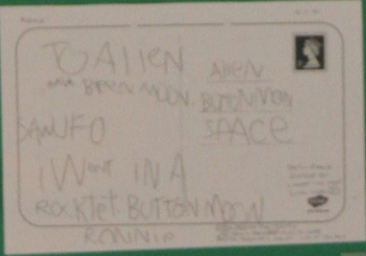

Luke is always motivated to learn and tidy the classroom!

Harrison has been very motivated concentrating hard on his work and letting adults know when he has enjoyed a lesson. Well done Harrison!

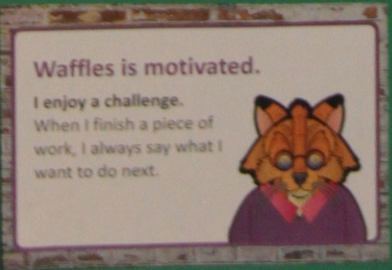

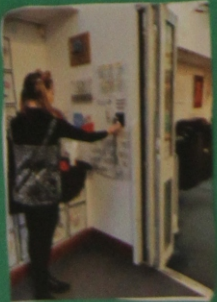

Ronnie has been motivated and working really hard in every lesson but particularly in English descriptive writing, where Ronnie talks about his thoughts and feelings and is motivated to create great pieces of work.

Layton was very motivated this week to show everyone how he can use his switches on the playground to play music!

Fleur has been motivated to be independent by doing a variety of tasks around school.

Eddie has been motivated in his reading

Amy has been really motivated to make gifts for the Christmas Fair

Waffles the Motivated Fox