

Yoimoji of the Week

Hazel has been motivated all week in lessons. She was determined and motivated when making her chocolate mug cake and also to learn the dances for the school show Performing beautifully! She has shown perseverance and was amazing in both shows.

Theo and Eddie were really motivated during the school show and were amazing in our performance.

Dominykas was motivated to learn and perform our class dance with enthusiasm at the show this week!

Amelia was very motivated to perform her best in the school show.

Joshua was motivated this week to climb the pirate ship on the playground for the first time.

Eddie was very motivated to take part in the school show.

Millie has been very motivated for our school show, playing the songs at home and practicing her dances in preparation for her performance!

Amy MT has been so motivated, enthusiastic and helpful with the school production.

Shaun was motivated to explore the sensory tuff tray in the summer show, and was a superstar! He waited his turn off stage, and did a great job!

Waffles is motivated.

I enjoy a challenge. When I finish a piece of work, I always say what I want to do next.
