This Week

Penguin Cake Raffle: Jo in the school kitchen has made another lovely Christmas cake, which she is putting up for raffle to raise money for the school. It is a traditional Christmas cake, so please be aware it contains both nuts and alcohol! Raffle tickets are £1 each and can be bought via the Office.

Chestnut Tree House Collection: Sarah Jones in Palms class is collecting Christmas donations of DVDs/CDs for Chestnut Tree House again this year. Please see the attached letter for details.

Traffic Lights: We have been informed that there will be temporary 3-way traffic lights at the entrance to the school drive only on the afternoon of Tuesday 4th December. Please take care if you are visiting the school on this day.

Class News from Willows Class

Willows have started getting into the festive spirit this week. We made some brownie reindeer faces in cooking which were really yummy. On Wednesday we visited Newbridge Nurseries garden centre and looked at all the pretty Christmas decorations and lights, we even found Santa.

Class News from Oaks Class

Oaks have been working really hard on their decorations for the RHS Wisley Christmas Tree competition. Please visit our tree and vote for us from 6th December to 6th January.
