"My name's Abi and I work for Reaching Families. I am looking forward to coming to your QEII Connections Parents Meeting to talk to you about the services and support Reaching Families can provide. Reaching Families is a parent-carer led, grassroots charity which aims to support parents and families of children and young people with special educational needs and disabilities (SEND) in their daily lives, in particular through the delivery of information, training and peer support."

Book Week: Our Book Week is NEXT WEEK (4th to the 8th March.) On Monday 4th March we are holding a whole school book swap where students are invited to bring in a good quality book they no longer want to swap for a new one and on Thursday 7th March (World Book Day) students are invited to dress up as their favourite book character. The week will be filled with lots of reading and book activities!

Red Nose Day: For Red Nose Day on Friday 15th March, everyone is invited to wear pyjamas and/or red clothes and we are asking for a suggested donation of £1 each for the Comic Relief charity please. We will be having special Comic Relief themed activities happening on the day.

Headteacher's Award Winners

Amber, Trailblazers - Creating an amazing cartoon strip with speech bubbles and fantastic drawings completely independently.

Julia, Trailblazers - Making amazing critters art.

Yoimoji of the Week: Gruber

Gruber is a responsible goat. We are using "Yoimojis" in our Assemblies, to help with learning and celebrating OFSTED's Fundamental British Values.

Yoimoji is a blend of the Japanese words "yoi" (good) and "emoji" (slang for character.) You can see our Yoimoji posters on our website's news pages.

Gruber is responsible.

I'm in charge of what I do. When I take on a task, it's up to me to do well and people can trust me.

Class News from Beachcombers Class

Beachcombers class have been welcoming the Spring term with some daffodil painting and flower pictures. We also painted hearts to give our families for Valentines. The children have been enjoying a new spinning green fish chair and we have started our topic of Animals, exploring pets and animals from the story 'Dear Zoo'. We continue to follow the children's interests and enjoy music, physical activity and plenty of time outside.
