

Yoimoji of the Week

Imogen made a wonderful version of her own of Henri Roseau's 'Tiger in a tropical storm'

Amy MT beautifully designed a 'Postcard of kindness'

Noah has been creative this week when doing his cone decoration in cooking.

Clayton enjoys being creative

Kelsey has been very creative this week, when cutting wool to make Rapunzel's long hair.

Dominykas was very creative on the computer

Earl was very creative during a cookery session and decorated his cake beautifully.

Dan made a wonderful Anderson shelter with support.

Taylor was really creative when making his Anderson shelter and worked really hard in our art session to make vegetables out of icing for the dig for victory garden.

Callum has been very creative this week! He used Scratch to write his own musical tune using colours and numbers and performed it on the laptop!

Amelia made a brilliant Anderson shelter

Jazzle is creative. I'm full of new ideas. It's great fun coming up with different ways to do things and express myself.

Jazzle the Creative Zebra