Yoimoji of the Week: Ferris

Ferris is a collaborative elephant. We are using "Yoimojis" in our Assemblies, to help with learning and celebrating OFSTED's Fundamental British Values.

Yoimoji is a blend of the Japanese words "yoi" (good) and "emoji" (slang for character.) You can see our Yoimoji posters on our website's news pages.

Ferris is collaborative.

I work well with others. When I'm in a group, I can join in, listen well and help other people.

Class News from Sailors Class

Sailors Class have enjoyed learning about Shadows and Reflections as part of our topic this term! The children have been searching for shadows and reflections in a range of different environments including during our wellbeing walk, in the swimming pool and in our Art sessions with Penny! The children have enjoyed engaging in a range of shadow and reflection themed Art activities including sun catchers, reflective collages and stained glass windows! The children have also enjoyed exploring the books 'The Foggy Froggy Forest' and 'Moonbears Shadow!' and attempted to trace their own shadows with chalk on the playground!
