

Yoimoji of the Week

Waffles the Motivated Fox

Sam has been very motivated this week in lessons, especially Art! He has also been encouraging and motivating his friends to do their best, saying "You can do it!"

Jason has been really motivated to help in class and look after his friends.

Layton has been very motivated this week, keeping his head up when swimming on his front, and when sitting on the floor.

Well done Sophie for stepping in to support friends in the Rocket testing session.

Zach has been motivated to join in all of our learning activities using his working towards board

The Aided Language Board motivated Clayton to say the word 'apple'. Well done Clayton!

Earl has been motivated to learn the signing to the class Christmas song.

Well done Ryan for being really motivated to complete your farm jobs at Brinsbury.

Toby has been so motivated when writing recently. His ideas are flowing and he is really enjoying typing them up too

Robert has been motivated to learn a new skill. Well done Robert!

Waffles is motivated.

I enjoy a challenge. When I finish a piece of work, I always say what I want to do next.

Oliver was motivated to do well. He worked so hard on his rocket independently. He also had a great phonics and reading session.
