

Yoimoji of the Week

Grubber the Responsible Goat

Summer has been very responsible this week. She has been looking after her friends, and getting them their favourite objects and toys to help them.

Sarah has been really responsible in general this week and has helped her friends in really appropriate ways.

Aaron was very responsible on a recent walk. He followed instructions carefully and paid close attention when we discussed road safety.

Oliver was very responsible in Forest Schools and helped the class to weave.

William has been very responsible completing his end of the day job.

Oscar M has been responsible by helping to look after our classroom and shared resources.

Bea is always very responsible around Oaks - helping with jobs, cleaning tables, unloading the dishwasher and lots more.

Bobby has been very responsible this week by carrying his own bag to and from school.

Noah has been responsible for his actions. He has made good choices this week.

Dominic was responsible by giving everyone their coats

Gruber is responsible.

I'm in charge of what I do. When I take on a task, it's up to me to do well and people can trust me.

Fleur was really responsible when food was spilt by another student and cleaned it up without being asked to make sure nobody slipped.

Jason was responsible when arriving back to class and noticing there were no adults, so went to find a staff member.
