This Week

Message from the Governors: I am delighted to inform you that following a robust and fair interview process, with an exceptionally strong field of candidates, the governors have appointed Helen Elphick to the Headteacher post commencing on the 1st September 2019 - Helen Crooks, Chair of Governors.

JubyLee Bakes: JubyLee Bakes, the baking company formed by ex-QEII students and named after our school giraffe, have been selected as one of the finalists for the National Lottery "People's Projects" funding. If they gather sufficient votes to be one of the top three projects they will receive Lottery funding to enable them to have their own kitchen! You can find out more at www.thepeoplesprojects.org.uk - look in the Meridian West region. They will also be on TV after Meridian's 6pm news on Thursday 4th April (if you live in the Meridian West broadcast area.) The video will be viewable online next week. Please do have a look and give them your vote!

Easter Chicks for Sale: We are selling knitted Easter chicks, containing either a hollow chocolate or Cadbury's creme egg. They are available for £1 from school reception and are raising money for the Horsham branch of Age UK.

INSET Day: Our final INSET day for this school year is on Tuesday 23rd April.

Class News from Firs Class

Firs class had fun making special marmalade this week.

Class News from Elms Class

For their trip this week, Elms visited Horsham museum! Everyone's favourite exhibit was the toy room, they loved seeing how much toys had changed through the years.
