This Week

Welcome Back: We hope you all enjoyed the half-term break.

Sports Day: Our Sports Week will be from 20th-24th June, with Sports Day on the morning of Friday 24th June from 9.30-11.45am. Parents and carers are invited to join their child for the activities, which will be held on the Forest School field and games area. Children are invited to wear the sporting colours of their class's chosen country, details of which will be sent home by teachers soon.

Transition Webinar: Dimensions UK are presenting an online seminar titled "Preparing for your child's transition to adulthood" for parents & carers of children leaving school in the summer of 2023 or 2024. You can find out more and book your place online here: www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/preparing-for-your-childs-transition-to-adulthood-basics-and-banana-skins-tickets-354483388357

Building Work: We are very pleased with how the building work for our new classrooms is progressing. This week the building's foundations have been laid as we all adjust to the new environment.

Headteacher's Award Winners

Hazel, Pioneers - Using the internal phone independently.

Marcus, Pioneers - Showing great initiative to get help.

Fleur, Adventurers - Helping a member of the public with First Aid.

Frances, Globetrotters - Great work about the Galapagos Islands.

Yoimoji of the Week: Sampson

Sampson is an Enthusiastic bull. We are using "Yoimojis" in our Assemblies, to help with learning and celebrating OFSTED's Fundamental British Values.

Yoimoji is a blend of the Japanese words "yoi" (good) and "emoji" (slang for character.) You can see our Yoimoji posters on our website's news pages.

Letters Home

Astronauts & Pilots: RNLI visit letter & consent form. (Sent home in bags.)

Class News from Adventurers

We have had a marvellous week in Adventurers. We started the week by designing submarines and exploring the temperature of different waters. We then had a brilliant time at Chessington.
